(b) The consideration expressed in a document is generally taken to be its value for determining the registration fee. Where no consideration is expressed, the value of the property dealt with as shown in the document is taken.

(c) The provisions of sections 5, 6, 20, 21, 23 and 25, of the Mysore Stamp Regulation and of the Indian Stamp Act, respectively, are applied mutatis mutandis to calculations of value for the purpose of determining the registration fee.

(d) In the case of leases the value is taken—

- (1) at the total rent for the whole term when the lease is for periods not exceeding one year ;
- (2) at the average annual rent when the lease is for periods exceeding one year ;
- (3) at one-fifth of the whole amount of rents payable for the first fifty years when the lease is perpetual.

In all cases where a fine or premium is paid or is made payable or money is advanced, that amount is also added to the value. When a lessee undertakes to pay assessment quit-rent, etc., in addition to the rent, the said payment also is added to the rental value. If the rent is payable in kind and its money value is not specified in the lease, its value is taken to be the highest amount which the stamp borne by the document shall suffice to cover ; but if the lease bears no stamp or is exempt from stamp duty, the money value of the produce is calculated at the current market rates.

Where in agricultural leases for one year or less the rent is not fixed either in kind or in cash and the lease deed is unstamped, its value for purposes of registration is taken to be five times the assessment on the land the rent of which is secured by the instrument, when the survey assessment is specified in the lease.

(e) In the case of deeds of partition, the value of the separated share or shares on which the stamp duty is payable is taken as the value or consideration.

(f) When the value of the document is not specified :

In the case of all other documents in which neither the consideration for the transaction nor the value of the property affected is expressed, or in which it is only partially expressed the value shall be the maximum amount which the stamp borne by the document is sufficient to cover, if the document is one which is liable to stamp duty at ad valorem rates. If the value cannot be determined from the stamp, as for instance when the deed is not liable to stamp duty, or is liable to duty at a fixed amount irrespective of the value of the transaction, or when the transaction is not susceptible of money valuation, the fee leviable shall be Rs. 6-12-0 provided that in cases where value of only a portion of the property or consideration is given and that value exceeds Rs. 1,500 the fee shall be levied on the value so expressed.

Note.—In the case of documents evidencing petty transactions incapable of valuation the Inspector-General of Registration may, if he considers that the levy of a fee of Rs. 6-12-0 would be productive of hardship, authorise Registering Officers to levy a lower fee, which however shall not be less than four annas and six pies.
